

REGIONAL FUGITIVE TASK FORCES

CATCH OF THE WEEK

Week of November 8th, 2004

Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force  During the week of October 25, 2004, Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF) investigators from Virginia and the District of Columbia received information from New Jersey law enforcement officials advising that Victor Veston was possibly residing in the Washington D.C./Virginia area with his girlfriend, who was also wanted for probation violation out of New Jersey. Veston was a United States Marshals Service Major Case fugitive wanted on warrants charging armed robbery and weapons offenses, dating back to May 2003, out of Camden, New Jersey, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. CARFTF investigators followed many leads and on November 10, 2004, located and arrested Veston and his girlfriend at a residence in northwest Washington, D.C. 	  Victor Veston  Wanted for Armed Robbery and Weapons
Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force  On November 9, 2004, members of the Southeast Regional Fugitive Task Force (SERFTF) and deputy marshals from the Middle District of Florida (M/FL) arrested Terry Dean Rolison in Jacksonville, Florida. Rolison, who has an extensive criminal history that includes numerous arrests for fraud, theft, forgery and embezzlement, was wanted on a parole violation by the Georgia Board of Pardons and Parole and also wanted by the Chatham County Sheriffs Department and Florida authorities on additional felony fraud and/or theft charges. SERFTF investigators, with the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Technical Operations Group and deputies from M/FL, tracked Rolison from Georgia to Jacksonville, Florida, where they set up surveillance on two locations. Investigators were able to follow a woman who they expected Rolison to meet. As Rolison arrived in his vehicle to meet the women, he was arrested without incident. The investigation revealed that since the fugitive was paroled in June 2004, he has married at least two women and stolen approximately $75,000 from them in the process, and committed numerous additional crimes. 	  Terry Rolison  Wanted for Felony Fraud and Theft

New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force
On November 9, 2004, NY/NJ Regional Fugitive Task Force investigators, with the assistance of U.S. Marshals Technical Operations Group, arrested Anthony Walker and Emanuel Jones, both members of the Bloods street gang, in connection with a homicide in Jersey City, New Jersey. Walker and Jones were charged with being involved in the shooting death of 17-year-old high school student whom they believed had previously shot at Walker during a gang related turf dispute. Investigation revealed that the victim was not involved in the prior shooting, but was wearing similar clothing to that of Walker and Jones' intended target. In addition, a three-year-old boy was also struck in the gunfire and a 23-year-old male was grazed by a stray bullet. At the time of arrest, Jones was in possession of a .38 caliber handgun and both Jones and Walker were in possession of a quantity of marijuana.	 Anthony Walker  Emanuel Jones Wanted for Homicide

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force
Floriberto Ocampo was arrested on November 10, 2004, in Santa Ana, California by members of the Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force, deputy United States marshals from the Central District of California, and officers of the Orange County Sheriff's Department and the Santa Ana Police Department. Ocampo was wanted by the Salt Lake City, Utah, Police Department for murder in connection with the October 22, 2004, slaying of Juan Carlos Vasquez. The charges against Ocampo allege that he shot Vasquez multiple times with a handgun following an argument.	 Floriberto Ocampo Wanted for Murder

Great Lakes Regional Fugitive Task Force
On April 15, 2004, warrants were issued by the Lake County, Indiana, Sheriff for Javier Ponce for attempted murder, aggravated battery, burglary, and residential entry. On August 8, 2004, additional warrants were issued for Ponce by the Lake County Sheriff for resisting law enforcement, battery, public intoxication, possession of marijuana, and refusal to ID. This case was subsequently adopted by the Great Lakes Regional Task Force (GLRFTF) Hammond Office. On November 3, 2004, investigators developed information that Ponce was residing in Hammond, Indiana with a girlfriend. Investigators located Ponce at the address and placed him into custody. Observed protruding from the side of the mattress where Ponce was sitting when apprehended, was a .25 caliber handgun, which turned out to be a stolen handgun from the city of East Chicago, Indiana. Ponce was transported to Lake County Jail on his outstanding warrants. ATF is filing federal charges on Ponce for Felon in Possession of a Firearm.	 Javier Ponce Wanted for Attempted Murder, Aggravated Battery, Burglary, and Residential Entry